

EDUCATORS & SCHOOLS | YOUTH LEADERS & YOUTHREACH CENTRES

Certify your skills as a FIT Tech Apprentice Ambassador

FIT, Fastrack to Information Technology have created a certification for educators and organisations that wish to formalise their knowledge and understanding of the tech apprenticeship route to help them inform and guide their students towards suitable pathways to the tech sector.

Certification will make you, your School/Youthreach stand out

Aimed at Educators and Educational Organisations, however participation is free and open to everyone.

Who certifies it?

FIT certifies the badge which is verified and hosted on Credly. Credly, Inc. operates a range of verified skills, abilities, and certifications for educational institutions, companies and professional associations.

What is the benefit of completing this certification?

This award will enable you to guide and inform others toward suitable pathways to the tech sector. In addition, this certification can be added to your public and professional profile on social media and CV, formalising your knowledge and understanding of tech apprenticeship pathways.

How to earn a 'FIT Tech Apprentice Ambassador' badge

To obtain the FIT Tech Apprenticeship Ambassador micro-credential, participants will have to provide evidence that they have completed the FIT Digital Pathways (Worker section) module in the Choose Tech programme and fill in the questionnaire on our website, confirming you understand the key areas of the FIT Tech apprenticeship route.
